WELCOME TO CORTLAND STATE

The State University of New York College at Cortland extends warm greetings to you -- the athletes, the coaches and the officials participating in the 1983 NCAA Division II Northeast Regional Gymnastics Championship.

I offer my personal congratulations to each of you. You bring honor and distinction to yourselves, to intercollegiate athletics, and to the colleges you represent.

Cortland State College has a proud tradition in Women's Intercollegiate Athletics. It is out of that tradition that I welcome you in the spirit of friendship, respect, and appreciation for the value and rewards of competition.

Best wishes for a successful and rewarding championship.

Barbara A. Quinn
Director of Women's Athletics

Division II and Division III Women's Regions

Road to the NCAA Championship

The NCAA Division II Women's Gymnastics Championships at the University of California at Davis on March 24-26, 1983, will consist of eight teams and eight all-around competitors. Regional competition in the West, Central, Mideast, Southeast and Northeast Regions will be conducted to determine the participants in the national championships.

Regional competition will consist of six teams and six all-around competitors. The team and all-around champion from each region will receive an automatic berth in the national championships, and the remaining three teams and all-around competitors will qualify at large on the basis of their national qualifying scores. If the all-around champion from a region is on an advancing team, that position will revert to an at-large berth.

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

COLLEGE AT CORTLAND

Located atop one of the many hills in Central New York's "City of Seven Valleys," the State University of New York College at Cortland was founded in 1868 as the Cortland Normal School. Over the decades, the campus expanded and in 1941, by an act of the legislature and the Board of Regents, the institution officially became a college, providing four-year courses leading to a bachelor's degree. In 1948, the state legislature incorporated Cortland College into the new State University of New York.

Today, more than 5,400 undergraduate and 600 graduate students are pursuing degrees within the College's two academic divisions -- Arts and Sciences and Professional Studies. Twenty-three departments with a faculty of more than 300 offer the Cortland State student body some 40 majors from which to choose. These include liberal arts, elementary and secondary education, health and physical education, recreation education, speech education and speech and hearing handicapped education.

The College's main campus covers 191 acres and includes 30 major buildings. Thirteen of these structures are residence halls and provide on-campus housing for 2,600 students.

At Cortland State, athletics are viewed as having an important role in the educational mission of the College. During the fall, winter and spring seasons, Cortland State participates in 24 intercollegiate sports - 12 men's and 12 women's - in an attempt to provide a broad program of athletics which will meet the needs, interests and abilities of its students.

The stated objective of the College's athletic program is the development and welfare of the student. In the coaching of individual sports as well as in the direction of the overall athletic program, the College endeavors to provide a high calibre of professional leadership which is consistent with the goals of the institution.

Cortland State is particularly proud of its long tradition of intercollegiate athletics and its high standing in small college athletic circles. In support of this heritage, the College offers its student-athletes a number of outstanding indoor and outdoor facilities which are used for intercollegiate competition as well as educational and recreational purposes. The Park Center for Physical Education and Recreation, opened in 1973, features a main gymnasium with a seating capacity of 3,600, an Olympic-size swimming pool with gallery seating for 1,500, and an ice arena which can accommodate 2,500 spectators.
